

David H. Keiran

Chief Financial Officer

John Mr. Keiran serves as Chief Financial Officer of The Easton Group of companies and as Managing Partner of Easton Real Estate Advisors. He has 30 years of professional experience in institutional real estate investment management, including business development, investor relations, accounting, taxation, finance, risk management, compliance, information technology, asset and portfolio management.

Mr. Keiran's past positions include Principal, Chief Financial Officer & Director of Investor Relations for Marcus Partners, Inc. where he was also a voting member of the investment committee; Senior Vice President and Director of Investor Relations for New Boston Real Estate Investment Funds where he also sat on the investment committee and was Chief Compliance Officer; Partner, Partner of TA Associates Realty where, in addition to having a role in business development and investor relations, David served as Controller of the firm and then as an Asset Manager of a large portfolio of commercial and multi-family assets; and Senior Auditor at Price Waterhouse where he specialized in real estate, banking and investments.

Mr. Keiran is a graduate with honors from the Northeastern University School of Business, with a BS in Accounting. He also has an MBA with honors from the Bentley University McCallum Graduate School of Business.