

Jose A. Hernandez-Solaun

President

Mr. Hernandez-Solaun is President of The Easton Group, managing the day-to-day operations of the company's brokerage, property management and development divisions. Previously, he spent 15 years at GE Capital, a division of General Electric (GE), serving as Senior Vice President and working with C-level executives of mid-market companies to facilitate their financing needs. Mr. Hernandez-Solaun holds a BA in Entrepreneurship, Marketing and International Business from Florida International University. He received his MBA from the University of Miami and an Executive Certificate in Strategy and Innovation from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He also studied at the John F. Welch Leadership Development Center.

Professional Achievements

- Adjunct Professor of Finance, University of Miami
- Distinguished Young Leader Award, Thurgood Marshall College Fund 2013
- South Florida Business Journal "40 under 40" 2012
- Co-founder of LEAD305, an open-source leadership platform
- Founder-The Hernandez-Solaun Foundation

Community Service

- Chairman – American Diabetes Association (Miami-Dade and Monroe)
- Chairman – MIT Enterprise Forum of South Florida
- Chairman – Hernandez-Solaun Foundation
- National Committee Member – American Diabetes Association – Community & Volunteer Development
- Select Projects Funds Committee – Citizens Board – University of Miami