

Jake Weiss

Senior Associate

Professional Expertise

Jake Weiss is a Senior Associate with The Easton Group's Tenant Advisory Practice. As part of the Miami-based team working with Andrew Easton, he focuses on delivering optimal real estate solutions to corporate and institutional tenants, major law firms, as well as both national and local businesses. Mr. Weiss' involvement in companies' real estate decision making processes typically results in reduced occupancy costs, increased efficiencies and increased employee satisfaction / retention.

Born and raised in Miami, Mr. Weiss brings a wealth of knowledge about the South Florida market to the team. Jake started his career in financial consulting where he previously worked for Ernst & Young. He worked very closely with large banks and insurance companies and developed key client relationships during his time there.
