

Andrew Easton

Vice President

Andrew Easton is a Vice President with Easton & Associates, specializing in white glove tenant representation. Andrew's tenant representation practice is based on the principle of building long-term relationships. His responsibilities include strategy implementation, site selection, financial analysis and lease negotiations; assisting high-level corporate decision makers to implement, analyze and develop financial models and negotiate leases. Mr. Easton has been involved in lease transactions worth over $250 million in value throughout his career.

Mr. Easton was recognized as a CoStar power broker, and as a Top Achiever within JLL. Mr. Easton has represented several Fortune 500 companies including Procter & Gamble, Xerox, Bank of New York, Mellon, Level 3 Communications, ADP, OmniCare, Mattel and Yahoo!. Throughout Mr. Easton's career he has been appointed as a representative for several public sector clients who include the United States Postal Service, Nan McKay, Quadel Consulting, United Negro College Fund and Pace Institute for Girls. Much of Mr. Easton's success is attributed to his responsiveness, dedication, hard work, and organizational skills.
